

It's always more fun with a one-man band.

DAN THE ONE MAN BAND

DAN THE ONE MAN BAND

INTRODUCTION FOR SCHOOLS

Dan Duguay (pronounced Do Gay) has been performing his one man band for most of his adult life. His music has enabled him to travel to places like Africa, South America, Australia, Asia, Europe and many parts of Canada. He put all the pieces of the band together himself. He says the hardest part was learning to sing and play guitar at the same time. Dan spent the early part of his career performing on the street at busker festivals and in malls. Nowadays, he performs mostly in schools, and at fairs and festivals. He encourages you to sing and clap along. He plays songs that he wrote as well as some that you might recognize. Could everyone please give a nice warm welcome to Dan the One Man Band!!!!

INTRODUCTION for community and corporate events

With guitar, drum, cymbals, tambourine, harmonica, egg shaker and kazoo, Dan Duguay (Pronounced Do Gay) has been performing his one-man band show since 1990. He has performed on every hospitable continent including Africa, where he entertained a group of Masai Warriors. He's also entertained audiences all across Canada. He lives in Calgary but spends much time touring to schools fairs and festivals. He wanted me to tell you that despite the constant rumours, there is no truth to the band breaking up! He assures me all his members are getting along great!

We are very happy to have the band here today/tonight. Please give a warm welcome to Dan the One Man Band!!!
